COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY JUNE 11, 1913.

NUMBER 32

Death of a Prominent Lady

Mrs. Eliza Azbill, Who was the Wife of Eld. W. K. Azbill, Dies at Cleveland, Ohio.

A FORMER RESIDENT OF COLUMBIA.

The intelligence of the death of Mrs. Eliza Azbill, the beloved wife of Eld. W. K. Azbill, reached relatives at this place Saturday morning. The end came at her home, Cleveland, Ohio, at 11 o'clock Friday night, in the 65th year of her age. The interment was at Indianapolis, Ind., Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

This death was not a surprise to relatives and friends of this place, as they were advised every day or two that she was so afflicted that it was not possible for her to live.

Mrs. Azbill was a lady of high Christian character and took a great interest in church work. Socially, she was highly esteemed and the news of her demise brought much sorrow to her old home town.

The deceased was a sister of Mr. Jas. T. Page and Mrs. Mary J. Blakeman, the latter being at the bedside when the end came.

This paper tenders its sympathy to the sorrowing husband and son and all other relatives.

Next Monday circuit court will open at Jamestown. Evidently the greater portion of the first day will be taken up by candidates. The aspirants for the State Senate, L. T. Neat, Robert Antle, E. M. Cox, all Republicans, and Hon. J. O. Ewing, of Burkesville, Democrat, will be present and present their claims. The candidates for Representative, Hon. Lilburn Phelps and Dr. Combest will also make speeches and they will be followed by county candidates, who will make brief talks. The primary is getting closer and the closer it gets the hotter will be the fight.

Mr. J. Press Miller and wife will, sometime during the coming fall, remove to what is known as the Payne place owned by Mr. Miller's father, Dr. S. P. Miller, and located three miles South of Columbia, and commence farm life. Farming is the most profitable business in this country, and it is certainly the most independent way of making a living. Press has an intelligent idea of farming, hence there is no reason why he should not succeed, especially when he will be occupying a very productive farm.

Last Monday week was the opening of the Wayne circuit court at Monticello. A large crowd was in town, and the Republican candidates for the State Senate spoke. The candidates are L. T. Neat, of Adair, Robert Antle, of Russell and E. M. Cox, of Clinton. They all have a following in Wayne county, but which of the three is in the lead, this paper is not informed.

Mr. Jas. T. Page has had the windows of the Odd-Fellows' Hall painted, and also the windows of Mr. Henry Ingram's store, giving the building a fresh appearance.

Mr. J. C. Garner desires to return his grateful thanks to all the friends who so kindly waited upon his wife during her illness, ending in death.

Read the advertisement of Russell & Co. They are offering to the trade bargains in a great profit sharing sale, running from June 10th, to the 24th.

Born, to the wife of Calvin Hutchison June 4th, a daughter Lindsey-Wilson Faculty.

The following named persons, with two to be added, will make up the Faculty of the Lindsey-Wilson Training School for the coming year:

Rev. J. S. Chandler, Principals. R. R. Moss, C. D. Nelson, Advanced work, graduate of Oxford University, England.

Miss Kathrine E. Murrell, Columbia, Latin and German. Miss Flora Powell, Monticello, Primary.

The Music and Expression Departments will be under first-class directors, their names to be made known in a week or two.

Prof. Nelson, in addition to teaching, will have charge of the boy's dormitory, and will direct the athletics.

The outlook for the coming year is very encouraging, the principals anticipating no falling off of patronage, as flattering letters are received daily.

Already $1,500 is in sight for a new boy's dormitory, and other needed improvements will be made.

The management extends its best wishes to all former pupils asking them to encourage others to come.

First Tuesday in September will be the opening.

Announcement.

The marriage of Miss Louise Wickliffe, of Greenville, to Dr. R. A. Jones, of Cincinnati, is announced for the 25th of June. The ceremony will take place at the home of the intended bride. The intended groom is a prosperous business man of Cincinnati, and is a son of Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Jones, Montpelier, Adair county, Ky.

Mr. Harry Chilson purchased of Frank Sinclair, a few days ago, two dwellings and lots in Columbia, the property on Water street, formerly owned by E. W. Reed, and the residence and lot back of W. H. Eubank shop, now occupied by W. H. Wilson, and 99½ acres of land off the Steve Conover farm, two and a half miles South of Columbia. The consideration for all the property is private.

Mont Sneed was arrested in Lincoln county, last week and brought here Wednesday night, to answer to an indictment, charging him with breaking into a smoke-house at Gradyville, this county.

Mr. Sam Burdette, who got his ankle sprained more than two weeks ago, is yet unable to walk. It was evidently a very bad sprain and more than likely it will be two months before his ankle is strong.

Dr. Alper will spend this week at Russell Springs, will be back next Saturday, June 14. Any body in need of glasses will do well to call on him while he is here as he will not remain here much longer.

Mr. R. P. Osborn, who lived in Chicago, Ill., died on April 19, 1913. His wife was a granddaughter of "Aunt" Peggy Dooney, making her related to a number of people in this county.

Wm. Bryant, familiarly known as "Uncle Chickie," seventy-nine years old, was married in this place, last Wednesday, to Mrs. Rasner, the widow of Buck Rasner.

Rain came in due time, and last week was fine growing weather. You can almost see the corn climbing to the tassel stage.

Lessenberry-Turk.

Miss Litie Lessenberry and Mr. J. H. Turk will be united in marriage next Thursday, June 5, at the home of the bride's father, Mr. Dave Lessenberry, in the Blue Spring Creek country, the ceremony occurring at two o'clock in the afternoon. Miss Lessenberry is one of the most attractive and accomplished young ladies in the country. Besides her beauty she is one of the brightest young ladies and most successful teachers of Barren county, Mr. Turk is the well-known farmer and citizen, of the Hiseville country, and one of the cleverest and best young men in the county. He is a man of sterling worth and integrity and is a most popular and estimable gentleman. Mr. Turk was recently a prominent candidate for sheriff, but, as he owns one of the largest and most beautiful farms in the county, recently withdrew from that race, to devote himself to his large and demanding private business.

The marriage will be strictly private owing to the recent death in the connection, and only the families of the contracting parties will be invited.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Turk will leave for a short bridal tour, after which they will be at home to their friends at the groom's beautiful country place, "Waveland," in the Blue Spring Creek country.

The young people are both popular, highly esteemed and most excellent, and will have the congratulations and best wishes of a host of friends in their marriage.—Glasgow Times, June 3.

Delightfully Entertained.

On Thursday evening at her home on Greensburg street Mrs. Allen Walker delightfully entertained at a six o'clock dinner the following guests:

Mesdames J. O. Russell, Geo. Staples, Geo. Stults, Bruce Montgomery, Misses Heyd and West.

The Girls' Picnic Club met last Thursday afternoon with Miss Jennie McFarland. A large crowd of girls were present and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Lester Bridgewater, of color, charged with forging C. C. Christies' name to checks, was given an examining trial before Judge Moss, last Monday and held over.

A letter from Mr. J. J. Hunter, Snyder, Texas, says: "One dollar enclosed, all well, weather hot, season good, crops look well. We hope for all that is good."

Harvest time is approaching. There are some inferior fields of wheat, but the crop, generally speaking, throughout the county is very good.

Prizes to be awarded by the management of the Parlor Circle will be handed to the winners next Tuesday night after the show.

Six persons joined the Christian church last Sunday night, at the close of a strong sermon delivered by Eld. Montgomery.

Mr. Buford Hatcher, who lived near Hatcher, Taylor county, died a few days ago, a victim of typhoid fever.

Attention is called to the sheriff's settlement published in this issue of the News.

LOST—a small ivory fan, light blue ribbon on handle, light blue hand painted flowers on it. Will pay a reward.

The Revival.

The meeting at the Christian church will continue perhaps all this week. Large congregations attend the evening services and the afternoon meetings are well attended. Eld. W. G. Montgomery, who is doing the preaching, is pointed and at times grows eloquent. He is preaching the simple story of Christ, urging the ungodly to accept Him. But few, if any, more entertaining ministers come this way. His talent, knowledge, and the happy way he has of conveying his ideas, is accounted for from the fact that he was born and reared in Adair county.

The unpardonable sin was the speaker's subject Monday night, and in his opinion the rejection of Jesus Christ, the refusing to accept Him, was the sin against the Holy Ghost.

Special Notice.

We hereby notify the traveling public that we will not be responsible for baggage left at our barn. It can be left, but at the risk of the owner.

W. R. Myers & Son.

Miss Mabel Atkins, one of Columbia's bright young ladies, has accepted a position with the Columbia Telephone Company, and will assist Miss Mollie Caldwell, who is an expert in operating the key board. Miss Atkins is quick to catch on and in a short time her services will be valuable to the company.

The ministers and laymen, who attended the District Conference, are loud in their praise of the cordial hospitality extended by Taylor county people. The doors of homes, extending several miles from the church, were thrown open and every body invited to come in. It was a very interesting Conference.

Mr. Lucien Jones, son of Mr. J. W. Jones, of Glensfork, who got his left foot badly cut fifteen weeks ago, was in Columbia Friday to consult a doctor. He was of the opinion that erysipelas had set up, as his foot was in a worse condition than at any time since the accident.

Bryan Hord, of Campbellsville, fifteen years old, who was stabbed by his brother, Paul, thirteen years of age, died a day or two after the terrible affair. Mr. G. W. Hord, a hardware merchant, was the father of the two boys, and he and the mother are distressed beyond description.

Miss Julia Eubank, who is conducting a millinery establishment at Winona, Miss., has sent to this office a half dozen Cape Jessamins, a most beautiful and fragrant flower, grown in the sunny South. The kindly remembrance was duly appreciated.

One year from now the District Conference of the Methodist church, Columbia District, will be held in this town. An effort will be made to have a Bishop come and preside over the deliberations.

The Russell circuit court will open at Jamestown next Monday. A representative of this paper will be in attendance the two first days, and persons who may have business with this office can see him on the square.

We hope to meet many friends of the News in Jamestown next Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. Mont Corbin, of Dulworth, this county, was married to Miss Lillie May Willis, of Campbellsville, one day last week.

Personals.

Mr. Wade Helm has returned from Ashland.

Mr. W. J. Mackin, of Lebanon, was here Monday.

"Doodle" Sullivan, Jamestown, was here Monday.

Mr. Fred Myers and wife will visit Louisville this week.

Mrs. Helena Williams was quite sick a few days of last week.

Mrs. Alfred Murrell and her son, Jesse, are reported better.

Mr. W. T. Cleland, of Lebanon, was here a few days ago.

Miss Ida Hogard attended the District Conference at Elkhorn.

Rev. J. S. Chandler made a visit to Danville the first of the week.

Miss Ida Todd returned from Louisville the latter part of last week.

Messrs. Finis and Asa Baker were here from Amandaville Monday.

Mr. J. B. Drye, of Bradfordsville, called to see our merchants last Friday.

Mrs. R. L. Bunnell, of Louisville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. N. Murrell.

John, little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Beard, who has been very sick, is better.

Mrs. J. O. Russell, who was quite sick the latter part of last week, is better.

Mr. W. T. Flowers, of Bowling Green, is visiting relatives in Adair county.

Mr. Ray Montgomery returned a few days ago from a visit to Bowling Green.

Rev. J. N. Crawford was confined to his room all last week, a victim of malaria.

Mr. Paul Hughes returned from Central University, Danville, Monday night.

Mr. J. F. Montgomery and Mr. Rollin Hurt were in Jamestown last week, professionally.

Mr. Ralph Hurt, who is a student in Georgetown College, reached home last Thursday.

Miss Annie Dixon, Lexington, is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Bettie Butler.

Squire W. C. Wolford of Casey Creek, was here last Thursday, the first time fifteen months.

Miss Robin Jones, of Oaktown, Ind., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Grissom, and other relatives.

Miss Mary Grissom will return Thursday from Ashville, N. C., where she has been teaching music.

Mr. W. T. McFarland and Mr. G. A. Smith attended the District Conference of the Methodist Church at Elkhorn.

Mr. F. L. Selby and Miss Denie Phelps, of Esto, Russell county, were here Friday, the latter, to see a dentist.

Messrs. C. C. Traylor, Charley Garrett, Crit Cole and Rev. Morris, all of Beck's Store, were in Columbia last Friday.

Mr. G. T. Rasner and his son, Roy, were in Louisville last week, the latter to seek employment with the Ford Auto Co.

Mr. J. H. Flowers, of Paducah, Ky. a native of Adair, is visiting relatives in Columbia and out in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Cravens returned from Elizabethtown last Saturday night, the latter having been visiting her parents.

Mrs. Elrod, Miss Dora Eubank, Mr. Ward Denton and Miss Marie Denton will return from a visit to Somerset the first of the week.

Mr. Henry Sanders, of Lebanon, and Miss Elizabeth Durham, Campbellsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam Burdette last Friday and Saturday.

Rev. J. R. Randolph, pastor of the Methodist Church, Burkesville, and Mr. J. P. Smith, of the same town, were in Columbia last Thursday.

Messrs. Geo B. Breeding and G. W. Dillon, were in Columbia Friday, en route home from the District Conference which was held at Elkhorn.

Dr. Woodruff Flowers returned from Hopkinsville the middle of last week. He had a pleasant visit and reports Western Kentucky a fine country.

Mr. Charles Diddle, accompanied by Miss Jennie McFarland, went to Jamestown Saturday to witness a ball game between Albany and the local team.

Miss Alva Knight, Jamestown, returned from Nashville last week where she visited the Misses Crockett. Her father, Mr. W. S. Knight, met her at this place, on her return.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Walker and Mrs. Walker's father, Mr. J. H. Ritchey, of Burkesville, will leave here this Wednesday morning, for Louisville. The object of the visit is to have Mr. and Mrs. Walker's little son treated who is afflicted with an ear trouble.

Judge T. A. Murrell, who is temporarily located at Lebanon, reached Columbia last Friday about the noon hour. He was accompanied by Mr. E. L. Moore, Superintendent of agencies of the Citizens National Life Insurance Company. Judge Murrell is Supervisor of agencies. They made the trip from Lebanon to this place in an auto in two hours and twenty minutes.

How the Vote Stands

The following is the standing of the candidates at the Parlor Circle, up to and including last Saturday night:

Mary Smith	62,930
Dora Eubank	60,000
Nell Tarter	42,800
Eva Walker	42,650
Margaret Lovett	21,700

Dud Thomas Dead.

Mr. J. Dudley Thomas, who was born and reared a few miles from Columbia, died in the Milltown country last Saturday morning. He was a Federal soldier in the Civil war, and was about seventy years old, and had been a hard working man all his life.

For the last three years his home was near Campbellsville, and when taken sick was visiting a daughter in this county. He was an honest man and left, besides his children, many friends. His wife died several years ago.

The railroad wreck at Dant, Ky., last Wednesday did considerable damage, but no one was seriously hurt. Tom Moss, of color, of this county, was on the train. He got one of his hands slightly hurt, and he knows no other person who received an injury.

Mrs. Nona Cabell, a former resident of Columbia, now of Louisville, named seventy-six correct answers in the Courier-Journal's book contest.

Mr. L. G. Weatherford has been appointed postmaster at Absher, this county. H. Cooley resigned.

No Louisville mail for two days last week. A wreck on the railroad reported.

Sheriff's Settlement 1912.

A Statement and Settlement of the accounts of A. D. Patteson, Sheriff of Adair county, Kentucky, of the collections and disbursements of thirty-five (35) ad valorem, and one ($1) dollar poll tax levied by the Adair Fiscal Court at its April term, 1912, for the payment of the current expenses of Adair county for the year 1912.

At the regular October term of the Adair Fiscal Court, 1912, the undersigned, L. C. Winfrey, was appointed by said court, as its Commissioner to settle with A. D. Patteson, Sheriff of Adair county, Kentucky, his accounts of collections and disbursements made by him of the taxes levied by said court at its April term, 1912, to be collected and paid to the creditors of said county by said Sheriff during said year, and in compliance with said order of appointment, I did on the first of December, examine the said Sheriff's books to ascertain the amount of said taxes remaining uncollected on the 1st day of December, 1912, in order that I might charge him with the additional 6 per cent. penalty which by law is added to all taxes which remain unpaid on said date. And in the first days of March, 1913, I made the following settlement with said Sheriff, to-wit:

I first charged said Sheriff with 3 514 polls listed by the Assessor for taxation for the year 1912 at $1 each.

I then charged him with 4 polls listed by the Sheriff for taxation for said year at $1 each.

I then charged him with 25c ad valorem tax on each $100 on $2 753 253 worth of taxable property for the General Fund, and 10c on each $100 on $2 757 253 worth of taxable property for Road Fund.

I then charged said Sheriff with 25c ad valorem tax on each $100 on $6 585 worth of taxable property listed by said Sheriff for the General Fund, and 10c ad valorem on each $100 on $6 585 worth of taxable property for Road Fund.

I then charged said Sheriff with the franchise tax on the different corporations doing business in Adair county.

I then charged said Sheriff with 6 per cent. penalty on all unpaid taxes on December 1st, 1912, which made said Sheriff Patteson's debts as follows, to-wit:

I was then shown a list of fifty six (56) persons who had been wrongfully listed for poll tax or who had been listed twice, who had been released by the court, which order of release is filed herewith as part hereof; I therefore gave said Sheriff credit by 56 polls at $1 each G. F. $ 56 00

I was then shown an order of the Adair County Court, dated Oct. 2nd, 1912, releasing Jesse Burton from paying a poll tax, which order is filed herewith. I therefore gave the Sheriff credit by 1 of said court releasing David Burton from paying a poll tax; I therefore gave said Sheriff credit by one dollar therefore, G. F. 1 00

I was then shown a bunch of twenty-one court orders of releases, releasing that many persons from paying an ad valorem tax on a total of $6 794 worth of personal property, listed twice or wrongfully listed or who had gone from the State and no property could be found out of which to make said taxes; I therefore gave said Sheriff credit by 25c on each $100 worth of said $6 794 on the G. F. 17 54

I then gave said Sheriff credit by 10c ad valorem tax on said $6 794 for R. F. 7 01

I was then shown an order dated March 5, 1913, releasing thirty-nine persons from paying taxes on property listed twice, and paid one, left the county and no property to make taxes, aggregating $1 096

I therefore gave said Sheriff credit by 25c ad valorem tax on each $100 worth of said $1 096 worth of property for G. F. 10 24

I then gave said Sheriff credit by 10c ad valorem on said $4 096 on R. F. 4 09

Said order is filed herewith

I was then shown a bunch of thirteen court orders releasing as many persons from paying taxes on real estate which had been wrongfully assessed, aggregating $4 00. I therefore gave said Sheriff credit by the ad valorem tax of 25c thereon on G. F. 10 00

I then gave said Sheriff credit by 10c ad valorem tax on each $100 thereof R. F. 4 00

I was then shown an order releasing a list of forty-three persons from taxes on the aggregate of $8 961 worth of property, wrongfully assessed. Which order is of date December 5, 1912, and filed herewith.

I therefore gave said Sheriff credit by 25c ad valorem tax on each $100 of said $8 961 for G. F. $26 40

I then gave said Sheriff credit by 19c ad valorem tax thereon on R. F. 8 96

I then gave said Sheriff credit by 6 per cent. penalty back on the 25c ad valorem tax on $14 337 worth of property released after the first day of Dec., 1912, on G. F.	2 76

I then gave him credit by the 6 per cent. penalty back on 10c ad valorem tax on said $14 337, released on R. F.	1 10
I then gave said Sheriff credit by 6 per cent. penalty back on the 58 polls at $100 each, which were released by orders of court after the first day of December, 1912, $58 00, G. F.	3 48
Total credits on releases on General Fund	128 42

Total credits on releases on Road Fund 25 16

I then deducted this $128 42 release from the total debit on General Fund of $10 725 30, which leaves a debit for General F. of 10 596 88

I then deducted this $25 16 release on the road fund from the total debit on the road fund of $2 885 44 which leaves a total debit for Road Fund of 2 850 28

I then added the general fund and the road fund debits together, making a total of 13 453 56

For collecting this amount I gave the said Sheriff credit by the commission allowed by law of 10 per cent. on the first $5 000 which is $5 00 $387 77 112 23

I then gave him credit by 4 per cent. on the remaining $8 453 56, which is $338 14 202 99 75 15

I then gave him credit by 4 per cent. commission on School Fund of $3 798 28 collected, same. 151 93

Said Sheriff then paid your Commissioner for making this and the School Fund settlement, for which I have given him credit, 25 00 19 44 5 56

I therefore find that A. D. Patteson, Sheriff of Adair county, is indebted to said county on the General Fund in the sum of $1 220 38, and $1 877 85 on the Road Fund, or a sum total of $3 098 23, less whatever delinquent taxes the court may allow him for the year 1912.

All of which is most respectfully reported.

L. C. Winfrey, Commissioner Adair Fiscal Court.

SHERIFF'S SETTLEMENT SCHOOL FUND 1912.

A statement and settlement of the accounts of A. D. Patteson, Sheriff of Adair county, Kentucky, of the collections and disbursements of the ten (10c) ad valorem tax and the fifty (50) cents poll tax levied by the Adair Fiscal Court, at its April term 1912, on all taxable property and persons in Adair County, not in the Graded Common School District of the town of Columbia, and ordered collected and paid to the treasurer of the County Board of Education for the year 1912.

At the regular October Term of the Adair Fiscal Court, I, the undersigned, was appointed Commissioner of said court, to settle with A. D. Patteson, Sheriff of Adair County, his accounts of the collection and disbursements of the ad valorem tax of 10c on each $100 worth of taxable property and a poll tax of 50c poll tax on each taxable poll in said county outside the Graded School district of Columbia, levied by the said court at its April term 1912, for the aid of the Common Schools of Adair County. And the undersigned did, in the month of March 1913, make said settlement, and reports the same as follows, to-wit:

I find the total taxable property in Adair county for the said year to be $2,763,838. From this amount I deducted the taxable property in the Graded School District of $592,381.00 leaving a balance of $2,171,457.00. I therefore charged said Sheriff, Patteson 10c ad valorem tax on each $100 worth of said amount, for said common school purposes, which is $2171.45 for 1912.

I find that the total number of polls in Adair county to be 3518. From this amount I deducted 321 the number of polls in the Graded School District, leaving 3199. I then charged said Sheriff with a poll tax of 50c on each of the 3199 polls for said school purposes for 1912, which make a total of $1599.50 poll tax.

I then charged said Sheriff with the franchise tax on the corporations doing business in Adair County, not in the Graded School district.

I then charged said Sheriff with 6 per cent. penalty on all unpaid taxes on December 1, 1912, in said county, and outside the Graded School district, $961 29, which made said Patteson's debits as follows:

Newspaper Notes

Up to 30 years ago hardly a single newspaper existed in China, while today as many as 12 are published in Hong Kong alone, about 20 each in Canton and Shanghai, and one or more in every large city of the interior.
While Chinese newspapers were of small size formerly, and printed hardly anything but local items, they now contain an ever-increasing number of business advertisements, including those of European firms, and late commercial, technical, and foreign news is also published. About 20 periodicals are published in China in English, French and German for the benefit of the Europeans living there, but they are all small papers with one exception.

The Chinese are the greatest consumers of old newspapers in the world. The official returns of the Custom house at New-Chwang state that that port alone in 1911 received 1,918 tons of old European newspapers.

It is not at first easy to discover to what use so much obsolete news can be put. However, we gather that the middle-class Chinese prefer newspapers to the native variety as a covering for their walls. It has a greater power of resistance and affords a more effective barrier to the invasion of the vermin that plague Chinese houses.

Moreover, the natives are experts at cutting out of the newspapers waistcoats which they wear next to the skin. These paper waistcoats are said to be the best possible protection against a sudden cold snap. In view of these admirable uses to which European newspapers may be put it is not surprising to learn that the imports of 1911 show a considerable increase in weight.

Barnes Who Shot McFarland Arrested.

Sheriff I. T. Proffitt and his deputy, Mr. Kirk Simmons, last Thursday night arrested Angelo Barnes, the moonshiner, who shot Deputy Collector McFarland so dangerously some four weeks ago. He was carried to Tompkinsville, where he was met by Deputy U. S. Marshal Wise, who brought him to this place. He was taken before U.
S. Commissioner Smith, and his examining trial set for to-morrow. In default of $3,500 bail, he was lodged in jail in Glasgow to await his trial. Barnes was traced to the home of his father, in the Strode section, where he was found hidden under the bed.

Creed Gray, arrested by Deputy Marshal Wise, in the same section, was brought here Thursday, on suspicion of being in partnership with Barnes, but the evidence was lacking, and he was released.

Wise also arrested Skinner
Flippin, Felix Wright and Cora Duerson, all of this place, charged with bootlegging. Flippin and Wright were held over to the grand jury and released on a bond of $200 each for their appearance in the Federal court in Louisville, in October. The Du-amining trial before Judge Smith Saturday. Until then, she is out on a bond of $200.

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday

BY THE

Adair County News Company.

(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. S. HARRIS EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail matter.

WED. JUNE 11, 1913.

The fact that considerable interest is developing in the campaign for Democratic nomination for county offices in this county, leads us to write the following which we deem good in policy as well as right in principle, and in keeping with Democratic preaching throughout the country. First, no money or whiskey should be used by any candidate to gain an advantage over his opponent. Second, no misrepresentation or mud-slinging should be used, but only upright and fair methods should prevail. If the contestants will make clean fights there need be no fear of defeat later on, but should disreputable methods or means of debauchery be used, a rebuke will surely follow in the final contest. A gentleman can well afford to be defeated by a gentleman, but the voters of this county are not in the frame of mind to indorse or aid a man who wins by unfair or dishonorable methods. So far as we are able to learn, the contest to date is manly, and meets the approval of those who believe in upright conduct, and if continued the close the result can not be doubted. Defeat may be disappointing, but no disgrace, and he who gives his opponent as square a deal as he would receive from him, will never have cause to regret. Again, those who seek party honor should remember that their conduct largely affects their party as well as themselves, and no true man to party or principle will seek personal gain at the sacrifice of friends. The days of blindly following party emblems have passed. The thinking part of the people have rebelled against party lash, and no longer will be led by appeals to prejudice or passion. Our nominees must be men of clean records, qualified and of good report through the contest now on if they win next November, and there need be no trouble to secure such a complete ticket. The campaign so far is moving nicely. It is manifesting a spirit of rivalry, but keeping within the limits of honorable conduct one toward the other. As yet it is not settled by any means. No candidate has a walk over. Democrats are deliberating, trying to make the best selection by investigation of the real merits of all the applicants, and when the decision has been reached we predict a ticket that will be an honor to the party.

I am much pleased to notice your article in the issue of June the 4th on extremeism. It is to be regretted that papers are being circulated in this county, which contain inflammatory articles that tend to array Protestants against Catholics. The Constitution of the United States in Article six reads; "No religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States." Our forefathers left the old country and came to America, where they could have and exercise religious liberty. Passion and prejudice should have no place in our hearts, and we should accord to all religious denominations the same privileges that we enjoy—to worship God according to the dictates of our conscience. The Catholics of the United States are patriotic and loyal to our government. When the tocsin of war is sounded they valiantly march under the banner of our country. The vile slander published in one of those unprincipled sheets that the Catholics were accessory to the assassination of our lamentable and beloved President, Abraham Lincoln, was intended to inflame the minds of the ignorant. Some of our ablest statesmen are Catholics, and they have won imperishable renown for their services in the interest of the people. Some of our great Generals in the Civil war were Catholics, who won and received the plaudits of the people in recognition of their gallant services. If these papers are trying to foment strife in order to revive the old "Know-nothing party" their efforts will be a failure, for many remember the tragic scenes in Louisville on "Bloody Monday," when many were killed, brought on by the same means as now's employed. I am not a Catholic, and do not subscribe to their doctrine, but let truth and justice prevail.

Justice.

Rowes X Roads.

Here is what I found on a tomb stone on Barnett's creek, Adair county:

The children of Jessie and Nancy Sapp. Adie was born June 3, 1884; Rhoda was born April 2, 1885; Bertha was born April 3, 1895; Carline was born Oct. 7, 1897; Jessie was born — 1903. These children were burned to death September 15, 1904.

Well, we are so wet again this week we can't do anything. We have had three big storms this week, and wheat cutting is on us so we are in it.

George Hayes, near Montpelier, has a sow that has had 41 pigs in 15 months and 21 days. He says, boys you can buy her if you have money enough.

The Decoration at Owensby was a success in every way. The crowd was large, the best of order. Bros. Tarter and Master preached able sermons. We just had a fine time. There were 9 soldiers on the ground, 8 Union 1 Confederate. We all acted as one man.

Mrs. Frank Blakey is real sick this week. She has been in bad health for some time.

Bill Pierce is confined to his room with lung trouble.

Bill Cook went to Columbia the other day and brought his grandson, Buford Helm, back with him to stay a few days.

John Oaks is out cutting wheat this week. Look out for John Voils next week with his threshing.

Hatcher.

Bryan Hord, 15 years old, son of G. W. Hord, was stabbed by his brother, Paul, aged 13, last Friday evening about 6:00 o'clock and died Tuesday following. The particulars of the affair are not known, as no eye witnesses were present. The affair has cast a gloom of sadness over this entire section as the boys belonged to one of the best families of this county. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Barnett at the Baptist church, Campbellsville. The remains were interred in Brookside Cemetery in the presence of one of the largest concourse of sorrowing friends in this county. Mr. and Mrs. Hord have the sympathy of every one, and it is hard for them to bear the burden.

Miss Ethel Burdett, New Market, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Maggie Turner, at this place.

Mr. J. R. Price, who has been seriously sick for a few days, is improving.

Mr. B. H. Hatcher, who has been a landmark in this community for a number of years, died on the 4th. He was not sick one week. He was in a precarious condition from the first, and the doctor did not entertain any hopes of his recovery. He was well-known over Green and Taylor counties on account of a large relationship. His funeral services were at Bethel church, and were conducted by Rev. Stafford. He was buried in the church cemetery. His family has the sympathy of the entire community.

Candidates are quite numerous in our county, and are making an active canvass.

There are three candidates for County Judge, Judge E. N. Tucker, J. W. Rice and U. G. Hendrickson. The railroad debt is the absorbing question, and the taxpayers are going to demand a published statement of the views of each candidate for Judge. Such a demand is right for the people should not be misled by any one in order to gain their suffrage. We can be relieved by having a Fiscal Court who can act with some competency.

Mrs. Nancy Sublett, aged 91, died at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Wood Buchanan, Sunday evening. She was a most estimable old lady, always bearing her burdens and cares without complaint. Her remains were interred at her home at Green River Bridge, after a few appropriate remarks by her pastor, Rev. Pierce. She was a member of Souls Chapel church. She leaves six daughters and one son who are among the best people of our county.

Campbellsville can boast of 25 automobiles. In all probability, no other town of its size in the State has as many to its credit.

Mrs. Frank Wade, who has been sick for some time, is improving.

Mr. Charles Steges, a successful teacher of this place, will teach at Spurlington this coming term.

R. A. Turner has been offered an extra inducement to teach at Elkhorn. He is considering it and in all probability will accept.

Sensible Women Know Foundation of Health

As health talks to women become more general, both in the newspapers and on the platform, the mass of women are beginning to realize what the more cultivated have always known, that good health cannot be found in a powder box. The external of health may be obtained in that way, but the basis of health lies deeper, and yet is just as easily obtained.

The most important thing that a woman can do for herself, and about which she is often most neglectful, is to watch the condition of her stomach and bowels. The weary eyes, the bad breath, the frequent headaches, the pimples, the general air of lassitude is nine times out of ten the result of constipation or indigestion, or both. Many simple remedies can be obtained, but the best in the estimation of most women is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is mild, pleasant to the taste and exactly suited to her needs. It is far superior to salts, cathartic pills, waters, etc., which are entirely too violent. Women should see to it that they have at least one movement of the bowels each day, and when showing any tendency to constipation should take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the small dose prescribed. A brief use of it will so train the stomach and bowel muscles that all forms of medicine can be dispensed with. These opinions are voiced by thousands of women, after personal experience, among them Miss V. L. Moore, 32 Claiborne St., Nashville, Tenn., and Florence Cook, Lucas, Ky.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Train Seven Years Late.

There is at least one instant on record of a train reaching its destination seven years late. This was on the Gulf and Interstate railway, now included in the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe system. The train started on a 71 mile journey on September 8, 1900. Thirty-three miles out it was surrounded by waters from the Gulf of Mexico, which had flooded the railway. When the water subsided, the train was high and dry on the prairie, the only rails left being those on which it stood. For miles up and down the line not a vestige of track remained, says the Railway Magazine. The engine and four cars were abandoned, and remained a landmark. Eventually the affairs of the Gulf and Interstate reviewed. The road was rebuilt, and at last the rails from either end were connected with those under the long overdue train. Mechanists looked over the rusty locomotive found it in good condition, they fired her up, and moved off. The news was telegraphed to Port Boliver, the terminus, and when the train, more than seven years late, arrived, the time of her re-appearance and length of delay were gravely chalked on the bulletin board.

Man Coughs and Breaks Ribs.

After a frightful coughing spell a man in Neenah, Wis., felt terrible pains in his side and his doctor found two ribs had been broken. What agony Dr. King's New Discovery would have saved him. A few teaspoonsful and a late cough, while persistent use routed obstinate coughs, expelled stubborn colds or healed weak, sore lungs. "I feel sure it's a Godsend to humanity," writes Mrs. Effie Mornon, Columbia, Mo., "for I believe I would have consumption to-day, if I had not used this great remedy." Its guaranteed to satisfy, and you can get a free trial bottle or 50-cent or $1.00 size at Paul Drug Co. Ad.

Pointed Paragraphs.

Widow often rush in where young girls fear to tread.

Even the opened-faced man should shut up occasionally.

When a woman says: "I don't care what the neighbors say," she don't say it loudly.

During the honeymoon when other women look at her husband, the bride thinks they envy her.

The man who throws himself at a young widow's head will soon find himself under her thumb—or foot.

Move on Now!

says a policeman to a street crowd, and whack heads if it don't. "Move on now," says the big, harsh mineral pills to bowel congestion and suffering follows. Dr. King's New Life Pills don't bulldoze the bowels. They gently persuade them to right action, and health follows. 25c at Paul Drug Co. Ad.

Bits of Worldly Wisdom.

If a woman lacks modesty she modestly conceals it.

There is quite a difference between taking a brace and taking a bracer.

Marriage may make a man of a drunkard—or it may make a drunkard of a man.

Nowadays the "death do us part" lines in the wedding ceremony merely mean the death of love.

To choose a wife nowadays for her beauty is like choosing a horse for its trappings—both can be removed.

If a man has ever loved us, it is characteristic of your sex to hear of his marriage with an instinctive pang of regret.

If you find it difficult in writing to express all the sweet things you would say to her, try expressing a few sweets by the pound.

"All is not gold that glitters" affects a man but little where a woman is concerned—it's the glitter, not the gold, that he desires.

God Bless the Girl Who Works.

God bless the girl who works. She is not too proud to earn her own living nor ashamed to be caught at her daily task. She smiles at you from behind the desk or counter. There is a sweet memory of her in everything she touches. She is like a brave mountaineer, already far up the precipice, climbing struggling, rejoicing. The sight is an inspiration. It is an honor to know this girl and to be worthy of her esteem. Lift your hat to her young man, as she passes by. She is a queen in the realm of womanhood. She is a princess among the toilers. Her hands may be stained by dishwashing, sweeping or factory grease. But they are honest hands. They stay misfortune from the home, they support the invalid loved ones maybe, they are moving potent shields that protect many a family from the poorhouse. God bless the girl that works. —Exchange.

Guaranteed Eczema Remedy.

The constant burning, itching, redness, rash and disagreeable effects of eczema, tetter, salt rheum, itch, piles and irritating skin eruptions can be readily cured and the skin made clear and smooth with Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment. Mr. J. C. Eveland, of Bath, Ill., says: "I had eczema twenty-five years and had tried everything. All failed. When I found Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment I found a cure." This ointment is the formula of a physician and has been in use for years—not an experiment. That is why we guarantee it. Paul Drug Co., or by mail. Price 50c. SOME ALFALFA EXPERIMENTS.

In view of the widespread as well as increasing interest in the subject of alfalfa growing it is worth giving a summary in this department of bulletin No. 136, which has been lately issued by the Nebraska experiment station and tells of the experience of farmers in different parts of the state in getting a start with this valuable legume. Twelve farmers co-operated in the work, carrying it on according to suggestions and directions of the station directors. In this co-operative experimental work it was the aim to try out and compare the effect of three treatments in securing a stand of alfalfa and on subsequent growth—first, liquid nitrogen cultures sent out by the United States department of agriculture; second, soil from well established alfalfa fields, and, third, farm manure. Owing to the prevalence of drought and grasshoppers during the years 1910 and 1911 there was a failure on the part of some of the co-operators to get a stand, but the results secured by those who did get a stand brought out the following conclusions: That the use of farm manure in proper amounts and properly applied is to be strongly recommended, that where difficulty is experienced in getting a stand the soil should be inoculated and that inoculation with soil from a well established alfalfa field or sweet clover patch gave uniformly better results than were secured by the use of liquid cultures.

FOR CANNING SMALL FRUIT.

A lady reader of these notes gives the writer the following recipe for canning strawberries, raspberries and other small fruits and has given him a can of fine looking strawberries as proof that the method she follows is a success: She first sterilizes her cans and covers with boiling water, then fills them with the uncooked berries, setting the cans in a dishpan containing a quantity of warm water. Prior to this she has prepared her sirup, which is boiling hot. As soon as the water in the pan is brought to a boil the cans containing the berries are removed to a platter and the sirup is then poured over them. As the berries shrink some, reducing the volume in the cans, enough sirup is added so that the cans run over. The covers are then screwed on, and the job is done. The chief advantage of this method seems to be that the berries retain their shape much better than where they are cooked for some time.

SEED CORN TESTS.

Recent tests which the students of the agricultural course of the high school in the writer's home town have made of a large supply of seed corn saved last fall have brought out two interesting facts—first that ears that were picked and hung up in September before any heavy frost occurred show a practically perfect germination test, while ears that were picked after the first heavy freeze not only show a larger number of dead kernels, but in many instances the germinating power of those that grow is weak. If the average farmer would act on the information contained in these tests—pick his corn before there is any frost and use care in keeping it dry during the winter—there would be practically no such thing as a seed corn problem.

IMPORTANT TO DAIRYMEN.

It looks very much as if the day was not far distant when all dairymen furnishing milk to cities of any considerable size would be compelled to test their cows yearly for the detection of tuberculosis. The supreme court of the United States has affirmed the decision of a lower court granting municipalities the right of insisting on this test, and this gives the necessary foundation. The wise dairyman who looks to the future of his business will not only take the steps necessary to eradicate the disease, but will look carefully to the conditions under which his cows are kept so as to reduce to a minimum the likelihood of the development of the disease. And he will be justified in advertising his milk as from tuberculosis tested cows.

POOR MANAGEMENT.

The Nebraska College of Agriculture last year sent out inquiries to 2,000 farmers who are engaged in the growing of wheat and found that with but few exceptions they burned their straw. The station officials say that in effect these farmers, as well as thousands of others who follow the same practice in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, are guilty of arson and are directly impairing the productivity and physical quality of their soils. The station discourages this practice and urges the use of the straw as a roughage for winter feeding, as a fertilizer, as a preventive of soil blowing, to improve the drainage, to loosen heavy and adhesive soils and for bedding.

A PRACTICAL EXPERIMENT.

No more needed or practical experiment could be conducted by the class in agriculture in many sections than that of making a test of alfalfa growing. Directions best suited to the climatic and soil conditions of any locality would be gladly furnished by the directors of the state agricultural college. Rightly conducted, such an experiment would furnish just the data that dozens of farmers in the territory tributary to the school would be only too glad to get. The experiment would unquestionably prove both practical and interesting.

Gentlemen, Take Notice!

A sunshiny husband makes a merry, beautiful home, worth having, worth working for. If a man is breezy, cheery, considerate and sympathetic, his wife sings in her heart over her puddings and her mending baskets, counts the hours until he returns at night, and renews her youth in the security she feels of his approbation and admiration. You may think it weak and childish, if you please, but it is the admired wife, who hears word of praise and receives smiles of commendation, who is capable, discreet and executive. I have seen timid, meek, self-distrusting little body fairly bloom into strong, self-reliant womanhood under the tonics and the cordial of companionship with her husband who really went out of his way to find occasion for showing her how fully he trusted her judgment, and how tenderly he deferred to her opinion.

In home life there should be no jar, no striving for place, no insisting on prerogatives or division of interest. The husband and the wife are each the complement of the other. And it is just as much his duty to be cheerful as it is hers to be patient; his right to bring joy into the door as it is hers to garnish the pleasant interior. A family where the daily walk of the father makes life a festival is filled with something like heavenly benediction.

Ends Hunt for Rich Girl.

Often the hunt for a rich wife ends when the man meets a woman that uses Electric Bitters. Her strong nerves tell in a bright brain and even temper. Her peach-bloom complexion and ruby lips result from her pure blood; her bright eyes from restful sleep; her elastic step from firm, free muscles, all telling of the health and strength Electric Bitters give a woman, and the freedom from indigestion, backache, headache, fainting and dizzy spells they promote. Every where they are woman's favorite remedy. If weak or ailing try them. 50c at Paul Drug Co. Ad.

Stubborn Case

"I was under the treatment of two doctors," writes Mrs. R. L. Phillips, of Indian Valley, Va., "and they pronounced my case a very stubborn one, of womanly weakness. I was not able to sit up, when I commenced to take Cardui.

I used it about one week, before I saw much change. Now, the severe pain, that had been in my side for years, has gone, and I don't suffer at all. I am feeling better than in a long time, and cannot speak too highly of Cardui."

TAKE The CARDUI Woman's Tonic

If you are one of those ailing women who suffer from any of the troubles so common to women.

Cardui is a builder of womanly strength. Composed of purely vegetable ingredients, it acts quickly on the womanly system, building up womanly strength, toning up the womanly nerves, and regulating the womanly system. Cardui has been in successful use for more than 50 years. Thousands of ladies have written to tell of the benefit they received from it. Try it for your troubles. Begin today.

Shipments of raw cotton from the United States to France alone last year were worth $67,000,000.

Corn silage and bright, clean hay make a good ration for dairy cows, and good yields of milk have been reported where no other food was given.

The housewife may at times find it worth remembering that a pinch of soda added to milk that is close to the souring point will keep it from curdling on being heated.

It would seem as if the balmy fall and winter had been about offset by the chilly days of April and May and that there should be some warm, growing weather coming to us.

In waging a dandelion extermination campaign there is little use in digging up the plants at the blossoming period unless the blossoms are removed and destroyed, for if they are left many of them will mature seed and scatter it.

Encourage the boy by letting him have some of the money he gets for the sale of stuff from the garden which he has helped care for. The Scripture saying that "the laborer is worthy of his hire" applies to boys as well as men.

There is no kind of garden flower that is harder or easier to raise than the violet. It has few pests and thrives under the same general conditions as does the wild violet. A root or two will give a very large return in satisfaction for the trouble taken to care for them.

In the case of both horses and cattle (and folks might be added to the list) there is no scrub that is more of a scrub or more conspicuous than a thoroughbred scrub. This means that it takes something more than a pedigree on paper to make either a man or an animal worth his salt.

A very convincing reason for swatting the fly now is that under average conditions it will become the grandfather or grandmother of 1,600,000,000 by the time the middle of September rolls around. The writer hasn't verified these figures by actual count, but gives them on what seems to be good authority.

It may be a homely notion, but the writer somehow has the thought that with all of the many varied floral creations resulting from the ingenuity of plant breeders there has been nothing perfected that surpasses in exquisite coloring and beauty or in rich yet delicate fragrance a spray of wild crab apple blossoms.

It is well for both gardener and farmer to remember that cultivation is primarily for the purpose of stirring the soil to insure proper circulation of air and moisture and secondarily for the destruction of weeds. The one process serves both purposes. It is true, but it is sheer folly to stop cultivation just because there are no weeds.

All animals appreciate and are the healthier for having a dry place in which to rest and sleep, and this is particularly true of the milk cow and of the brood sow and her litter of little pigs. Many of the ills from which the animals named suffer as well as a good deal of loss might be prevented were greater care exercised in this one particular.

The writer planted some string beans this spring when he planted radish, lettuce and peas. The plants are now in their fourth leaf, but he has had to cover them half a dozen times to prevent their getting nipped with the frost, and he has concluded that planting beans in early April is a good deal like hatching chicks in February in that both are a bit out of season.

Everything that is transplanted in the garden these days should be safeguarded from attacks of cutworms by wrapping the stem a couple of inches above the ground with paper. If the worms are especially bad one should prepare poisoned bran or clover, according to directions recently given in these notes, and scatter it along the plant rows in the evening, so that the worms will get hold of it during the night.

At Rothamsted, England, is located an experiment station on which experiments in crop production have been conducted consecutively for a period of sixty years. Among other interesting facts brought out is that wheat that has been grown every year of this period on the same tract now yields but one-fourth as many bushels per acre as an adjoining tract on which there has been followed a four course crop rotation.

A Minnesota farmer has found a very effective method of getting rid of pocket gophers by punching holes into their runways with an end gate rod or broomstick and dropping in raisins, the seeds of which have been replaced with crystals of strychnia sulphate.

Close confinement is contrary to nature and has a tendency to make animals, as well as human beings, morose and ugly. It is true of the herd bull and a family dog, many of both kinds of animals being rendered both dangerous and largely useless by following this policy.

It is best not to cut asparagus after the 1st or middle of June for northern latitudes. This will enable the stalks to make a vigorous growth and will mean a corresponding development of the root system. If the feathery tops are wanted later in the summer for purposes of decoration they should be cut sparingly and scatteringly.

The state drainage commissioner of the state of Missouri is authority for the assertion that his home state leads all others in the work of reclaiming swampy and overflowed lands. During the past five years more than 1,000,000 acres have been reclaimed and projects are afoot for the redemption of 3,000,000 acres more.

There is a sort of grim and satisfying humor in the way that the old skindint and bulldozer who has starved and worried the very life out of his first wife is made to "loosen up" and stand around when wife No. 2 appears on the scene. Often he has taken the younger woman for an easy mark, but he has a rude and abrupt awakening.

A 22 caliber rifle is the best weapon for dispatching the small red squirrel that may be making headquarters about the premises. These little wretches will raid and kill a nestful of half grown birds quicker than any bird enemy the writer knows of. Inasmuch as the birds have an economic value and the squirrels have not, the latter should be put out of the way.

The best time to thin either peaches or apples is when they range about the size of a hickory nut. It will be impossible to get all of the thinning done when the fruit is just this size, but the nearest one can come to doing it the better. Peaches should be thinned to five or six inches apart on the tree, depending somewhat upon size, while apples should be thinned to six or seven inches apart.

The following recipe for making fly repellent for cattle has been tested out by a number of dairymen and seems to give good results: Three quarts of fish oil, one quart of petroleum and one ounce of carbolic acid. This should be applied at intervals with a hand-power sprayer. When the hair becomes coated with the composition the spraying will not have to be made so frequently.

A large number of biennial weeds of which the burdock and dandelion are representative may be easily exterminated by hoeing up the plants that are in their first year and by cutting plants of the second year's growth just below the heart. The directions given are not effective in killing perennial plants, such as the nettle and quackgrass, which not only multiply by seedling, but by means of underground root stalks.

Notwithstanding the great improvement in farm implements and methods of agriculture in the western hemisphere, there are still sections of China in which the primitive methods of hundreds of years ago are still employed. In plowing two men with ropes over their right shoulders and going tandem haul a very crude affair that turns a furrow six inches wide. In plowing an acre they travel fifteen miles. As each furrow is opened the seed is scattered, and the next furrow covers it.

Many a young man makes a fizzle of life because he starts out on the assumption that whatever progress he may make is largely the result of having a "pull"—that is, outside assistance from relatives and friends. The best "pull" any young man can have, and the only one that is worth a continental in the long run, is that which is the result of his own industry, sobriety and determination. Eventually he must stand on his own pegs, and the sooner he realizes this fact the better off he will be.

Readers of this department who may be interested in the growing of alfalfa should send to the department of agriculture at Washington for Farmers Bulletin No. 339, prepared by J. M. Westgate. The author has spent years in studying the growing of alfalfa in every state in the Union, and the bulletin referred to gives the results of his research. The author is a Kansas man and had extensive experience in the growing of the legume in his native state before investigating it in other districts.

The luxuriance as well as the hardiness of the common wild sweet clover as it is seen growing on hard and beaten roadsides and on the thin soils of railway cuts and river banks would seem to indicate quite conclusively that it has a mission as a crop to grow on the rough and less fertile portions of the farm. If used as pasture the cattle should be allowed to graze on it while it is tender, while if it is cut for hay it should be harvested before it gets old and tough. It is a soil loosener and enricher and should at least be given a trial where it is not possible to grow clover or alfalfa.

ONE EVIL OF HIGH PRICED LAND.

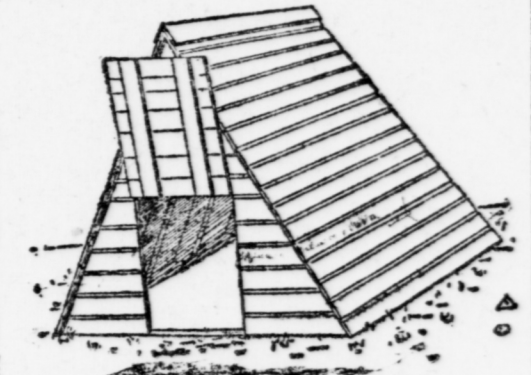

Farmers' boys do not see their way clear to buy land at $100 an acre. They are doubtful about being able to keep interest and taxes paid on land at this price, even though they could pay half the amount at once. The very prosperity which has overtaken this generation of farmers and landowners has discouraged the oncoming generation, and the result is more land ownership by nonfarmers, more farm tenants and fewer people on the land.—Country Gentleman.

IF YOU HAVE TO MOVE HOGS.

Easily Made Portable House For Swine Is a Great Convenience.

The Colorado experiment station describes the house shown in cut as follows:

It is eight feet wide, eight feet long and the roof is eight feet in length, making the building seven feet high.

The door in front is two and a half feet wide, three feet high and another at the back, near the top, is 12 by 18 inches. The small door may be covered with heavy muslin, admitting air and light without draft. The frame is made of 2 by 4's and is covered with drop siding. No floor is used.

When it is desired to move the building it may be tipped over on to a low wagon or stone boat. This is the house we recommend for beginners. It is cheap, and often old material can be used in building it. It is easily moved, easily disinfected and can be changed so frequently that it may be kept on clean ground, free from disease. When a sow farrows in cold weather a lantern hung to the roof will keep the building sufficiently warm.

FOR GROWERS OF TOMATOES.

Staking Is Necessary if Finish of Early Fruit Is a Consideration.

Whether to stake or not to stake tomatoes is a much debated subject, says a correspondent of Gardening. Like a good many others, this one will never be settled to the satisfaction of all. Where it pays one man to stake and sucker part or all of his crop another would lose money by doing so. Many experiments are misleading because they lack the practical side. By this we mean the ability to take the crop to market and bring home the money.

We find that for the early trade it is absolutely necessary to stake our tomatoes, as we cannot sell the product from prostrate vines. It lacks the finish which is so necessary for table fruit. There are other considerations. During rainy spells the trained vine will set fruit where the other will not, and when it comes to picking the crop we gain all the time and labor lost for staking.

To us it is more a matter how to stake than any other. We have had very good results by transferring the greenhouse system outdoors. This is simply setting stakes about ten feet apart and stretching a wire over these to which the vertical strings are tied upon which the vines are hoisted. We generally have four plants between the stakes and use American twine flax. We used to stretch a bottom wire, but found it very much in the way for boxing, hence quit it and get along just as well by simply tying the twine loosely to the tomato plants near the ground.

Salt For the Stock. Shall we salt stock? A friend says to feed the salt in the feed and not let them have access to it. His grounds are that he does not like to eat unsalted food and then go in the pantry and eat a lot of salt, and he takes it that the sheep or cow is like him in this respect. This looks like good logic.—Farm Progress.

BEE NOTES.

Never let any grass grow around the hives for a few feet on all sides. The grass helps the troublesome insects, especially the ants.

The Italian bee has been improved by selection and careful handling until we have some strains that are very gentle. No effort has been made to improve the black or German bee.

Bees never puncture sound fruit, but if the skin is broken by some other means bees will often suck the fruit dry. In doing that, however, they are sucking fruit which is already damaged.

Provide fresh water in a shallow dish near the hive. Put chips in the water and see that the water does not dry up. Have salt where the bees can easily find it and help themselves. This salt should be protected from the rain.

Let the bees form your acquaintance. Let them alight on you at will. Never attempt to brush them off. They will do you no harm as long as you are gentle, slow in movement and keep out of the line of flight. Never use perfume on the clothing that you wear near the hive.

We have had plenty of rain. Farmers are all through setting tobacco.

Dr. S. Simmons was on the sick list a day or so of last week.

John Moran, of the Stotts community, was in our midst the first of the week.

Ernest Harris, of Columbia, was here the first of the week in interest of the News.

Misses Creel and Katherine Nell, of Columbia, visited relatives here several days of last week.

Mrs. J. S. Pangburn, son and sister, of Cincinnati, are visiting relatives in our city, and expect to remain here through the summer.

Mr. J. P. Hutchison, of Columbia, was in our midst last week looking after produce, and as usual got a good load.

Messrs Arvest Hill and Will Diddle started for Jamestown and other points in Russell county last Saturday.

Judge N. H. Moss, Columbia, called in to see us while en route for his farm near here, one day last week.

We heartily commend our efficient road overseer—Mr. Charlie Sparks, to the public. He certainly has made a great improvement on our roads, and if he will continue as he has begun we will have no complaint during the winter season about bad roads in this section.

Mr. Alfred Parson and family visited at Portland a day or so of last week.

Mr. W. M. Wilmore and daughter spent last Friday in Columbia.

Mr. James Gilpin and son, of Sparksville, in company with several from this place, put in one day and night fishing down on Russell creek with fine results.

Remember the protracted services will begin here on Monday night after the 2nd Sunday in July. The well-known Evangelist, Rev. Coakley will be the preacher.

Mr. G. B. Yates, of Ozark, was in our midst one day the first of the week.

Rev. G. W. Pangburn accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Amos Keltner, attended District Conference at Elkhorn last week. They report a fine Conference.

Mr. Squire Kemp and wife passed through here the first of the week, enroute for Jamestown, where they will spend several days visiting their relatives and friends.

Mr. A. Hunn and son, of Columbia, were through here one day last week, looking after sheep and cattle, contracting some for future delivery at the market price.

We are glad to note that Mr. Silas Cain, who has been on the sick list for several days, is able to be up again seeing after his business.

The good rains and the beautiful farming weather have put new life in our farmers. Our prospects are fine for a good corn crop. Young corn is looking fine, and we have about one-half of a crop of tobacco set. Our meadows and oats have come out beautifully. Three weeks ago meadows that looked like they would not be worth cutting are going to be good. The wheat crop is not any thing extra, but we feel safe in saying that we will have a full half crop for what was sown.

Born, to the wife of E. R. Baker, on the 1st, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

Absher.

Farmers are getting along nicely with their work.

Mrs. Delaney Robertson visited her son near Cane Valley a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ferkin visited relatives in Taylor county last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Fred Humphress and Miss Audra Dillingham were visiting in Casey county last Saturday and Sunday, and were accompanied home by Miss Stella Beard.

Mrs. Ermine Green, who has been on an extended visit to relatives on Wilson's Creek returned home last Wednesday accompanied by Miss Eva Nance.

Mrs. Robert Humphress and Mrs. Owen Humphress and daughters, spent one day last week at Mr. W. A. Humphress's.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brockman and little son, Elzy, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gartin Weatherford last Sunday.

Irvin's Store.

We have a good rain and the warm weather is making corn look good.

Every body who works at all are well up with their work and our farmers are happy. The only pull back is the time taken up by the candidates, who are about in large numbers persistent in their promises soon to be forgotten.

Sheriff Hughes was through here to-day summoning jurors and looking after evil doers. Every body is glad to meet him except those for whom he has presents.

"Aunt" Laura Thomas who has been very sick is much improved.

D. C. Hopper and Mr. B. F. Rakestraw went to Somerset Sunday, to look after their lumber.

The Ministers meeting held at Salem last Saturday and Sunday was a success in every way. A very interesting discussion of each subject was listened to attentively, a very large number of people being there Sunday. Plenty of every thing good to eat for all and lots to spare was spread on the ground. The best of order prevailed, which speaks well for the whole community.

A very interesting Sunday School is carried on at Salem church and a goodly number are regular in attendance. Many questions are asked and discussed in the Bible class, all gaining information thereby. The writers occupation does not let him attend often, but those who can should attend regularly, taking their children along, thereby getting a good habit if nothing else.

Jamestown.

Rev. Tarter, pastor of the Methodist Church, this place, and ministers of other churches and laymen, out in the county, attended District Conference at Elkhorn. They all speak in the most complimentary terms of the hospitality of the residents of Robinson Creek section of Taylor county.

The Republicans of this county are very much interested in the race for the State Senate, Mr. Robt. Antle being a candidate. He is a gentleman who stands high in the county.

Monday will be the first day of the Russell circuit court, and the lawyers and Sheriff are busy, the former taking depositions, the latter serving papers.

In a former letter to the News I spoke of the lack of enterprise upon the part of residents of Jamestown, who have money. The streets are neglected, and when a rainy season sets in mud gets so deep that denizens can not leave home. Concrete is cheap, any body who can handle a trowel can put it down, then why should we not wake up to the improvement of this historic old town. If we would make our town inviting, the business of the place would thrive, and every body would be satisfied to live at home. An electric light plant is another enterprise that should engage the attention of our citizens.

Sometime in the near future I will take up other matters that should engage our attention.

The river is low, but gasoline boats make regular trips from Creelsboro to Burnside.

Fine and profitable sport is expected on the river as soon as it is as low as it will likely get. The banks will be lined with people, hunting pearls. There are a number of men who put in a great deal of time during the summer in the 'business. They have boats and grabs, and they hire men by the day to go out in the river and grab for mussels. When a boat load is secured they row to the shore and their employees open the shell for the pearl. Often as many as one thousand shells are opened without finding one.

Craycraft.

The health of this community is not very good at this writing.

Mrs. Nancy Hughes is real sick this week.

Miss Pauline Bryant is laid up with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Sothronia Cravens is also very sick.

Several from this place attended Mother's Day at Shiloh last Sunday and reported a nice day.

Mr. William Brynt, who is familiarly known as "Uncle Chickie," age about 79, was married, last Tuesday, to a Mrs. Rasner, of Columbia. A splendid dinner was served at his home only a few intimate friends being present. We wish him and new bride much happiness.

Mr. Frank McElroy, of the Montpelier section, was visiting relatives here last week.

Several from this place attended the Decoration services at Bearwallow last Friday and reported a splendid day.

Pickett.

We are having plenty of rain at present.

There has been several acres of tobacco set around here in the last few days.

Some people have planted their tobacco ground in corn on account of scarcity of plants.

Mrs. Geo W. Pickett, who has been in poor health for some time, is some better at present.

G. W. Whitlock, a grocery drummer of Campbellsville, was here one day last week to see our merchants.

Mr. Will Lyons was here a few days ago in an auto.

W. H. Kemp sold a nice bunch of hogs to Frank Dohoney a few days ago for 6¢ per pound.

There has been several cases of measles near Kemp in the last few weeks.

The wheat crop in this section is looking very well at present.

Mrs. Sam Keltner, who has been in poor health for some time is not much better.

We had an electric storm here last Sunday night with considerable hail in it.

G. T. Kemp and T. B. Finn attended court in Columbia as jurors from this section.

I have for sale an extra good Jersey cow, five years old, with young calf.
